The Big Short Quotes by Michael Lewis - Goodreads

The Big Short's biggest virtue is explaining the weird financial products that made such a splash before the bust. It does a terrific job in explaining how a mortgage-backed security (MBS) works, and how it mutated into a collateralized debt obligation (CDO) and then into a "synthetic CDO," fobbed off on the markets as a quality investment.

The Big Short, the Fed, and the Market - Foundation for ...

The Big Short might not feature any caped crusaders, chirpy sidekicks, or all-powerful supervillains, but make no mistake—this thing is all about fighting injustice. For some people, like Steve Eisman, fighting the financial world's injustice is about protecting the working class. For others, like Michael Burry, it's about exposing the market's failure to live up to its own self-image.
